DESCRIPTION	The FKUV was established in 1908 to unite all free kindergartens and to maintain a high standard of work. From its inception, the need for trained kindergarten teachers was considered essential. John Smyth (Professor of Education) and Ellen Pye (State Education Dept.) developed a training course which depended on the co-operation between the Kindergarten Training College and the FKU. In 1917 the union was granted registration by the Council of Public Instruction as a training centre for kindergarten teachers. In 1922, as enrolments increased the union moved to premises in Kew. Autonomy was granted to the Training College by the FKU in 1964 and it became the Kindergarten Teachers' College.
NOTE ON COLLECTIONS	This collection complements the collections of the Free Kindergarten Association of Victoria (86/153) and the Institute of Early Childhood Development.
