DESCRIPTION: Minutes and reports of Management Committee and sub-committees; correspondence with guest writers, international advisory group, and internal correspondence between committee members and staff; organisation files; programmes and all promotional material; some photographs.

HISTORICAL NOTE

The 6th International Feminist Book Fair took place in Melbourne's Exhibition Building from July 27 to 31, 1994. The previous Fairs were held in:

- 1st London 1984
- 2nd Oslo 1986
- 3rd Montreal 1988
- 4th Barcelona 1990
- 5th Amsterdam 1992

Melbourne won the bid to hold the 1994 Fair during the 4th Fair in Barcelona in 1990 when the International FBF Committee voted unanimously in favour of the next Fair being held in Australia. Susan Hawthorne, who had already been involved with the organization of other literary festivals, including the Australian Feminist Book Fortnight in 1989, became the Chair of the Management Committee. Other members included Lisa Bellear, Destiny Deacon, Melba Marginson, Carolyn Ingvarson, Liz Smith, Lorna Hannan, Renate Klein, Jocelyne Scutt, Colleen Lindner. Jane Sloane was appointed the Fair director and with a small team of assistants was responsible for the organization under the broad direction of the Management Committee.

[See Women in Publishing, July 1992 for article on the Fairs from 1984-1990. In folder 6/29].

HISTORICAL NOTE:

The special theme of the Fair was Indigenous, Asian & Pacific Writing and Publishing. The Fair itself comprised two parts: a two-day trade-only fair for publishers, booksellers, writers, librarians and others directly involved in the book trade, followed by a three-day literary festival open to the public and comprising readings, book launches, discussions and panel sessions. A fringe fiesta of workshops, exhibitions, readings and theatre and music events took place around Melbourne during the Fair.

This was the last IFB Fair as the subsequent fair, mooted for Brazil, didn't take place.

NOTE ON LISTING:

- This collection is listed at file level only. There has been no arrangement by the archivist within files and they generally reflect their original order.
- Most correspondence consists of faxes. This is not usually specified in the list below.
- As the entire collection was created between 1992 to 1994, no other more specific dates have been supplied in the list.
